The Ascension of the Lord

He was lifted up,
 and a cloud took him from their sight.
 - Acts 1:9

At the end of His earthly life Jesus ascends triumphantly into heaven. The Church acclaims Him in His holy humanity, invited to sit on the Father's right hand and to share His glory. But Christ's Ascension is the pledge of our own. Filled with an immense hope, the Church looks up towards her leader, who precedes her into the heavenly home and takes her with Him in His own person: "for the Son of God, after incorporating in Himself those whom the devil's jealousy had banished from the earthly paradise, ascends again to His Father and takes them with Him" (St. Leo).

TODAY'S READINGS:

First Reading --The lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles (Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26).

Psalm --The Lord has set his throne in heaven (Psalm 103).

Second Reading -- If God so loved us, we also must love one another (1 John 4:11-16).

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Our Lady of Good Success, pray that your Son will grant a haven of peace in His Sacred Heart to all priests, especially those newly ordained.

May 14 Rev. Timothy J. Murphy, 15 Rev. René Parent, MS, 16 Rev. Donald Noiseux, 17 Rev. Donald LaPointe, 18 Rev. David M. Darcy, 19 Rev. Norman Parent (Healing), 20 Most Rev. Mitchell T. Rozanski.

Also extend these prayers to the deacons of our diocese.

RESPECT LIFE ~ 5/13 ~ From today's 2nd Reading, 1 John 4: "No one has ever seen God, yet if we love one another, God remains in us."

Before the advances of science, we could not see the unborn, yet love for that child develops naturally.

Loving God,

We thank you for the love of the mothers you have given us, whose love is so precious that it can never be measured, whose patience seems to have no end. May we see your loving hand behind them and guiding them. We pray for those mothers who fear they will run out of love or time, or patience. We ask you to bless them with your own special love. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our brother.

Amen.

Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Graciously hear our supplications, O Lord, so that we, who believe that the Savior of the human race is with you in your glory, may experience, as he promised, until the end of the world, his abiding presence among us. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

You are all-beautiful, O Mary! You are the glory, you are the joy, you are the honor of our people!
